After thoroughly enjoying a number of years based in the Cotswolds I have decided to deal from home and this is a small seasonal, and personal, selection to mark this move.

All will remain the same with my dealings interests in Cecil Aldin and his contemporaries and I plan to expand the more current sporting art side of the business.

I will be happy to bring items of interest to your home or office; to meet in London or at any convenient spot and to look for any pieces that may be of interest to you.
